Sentences for analysis and treeing:

Group A: Prepositional phrases.

1. The death of Lincoln shocked the nation to the core.
2. He wrote a long letter to his only sister.
3. I enjoy the flashing of the red spots beneath the wings of the bird in the air.

Group B: Embedded sentences.

1. She told John that his mother is coming to dinner.
2. Jack said that Tom drove the car.
3. The man who lost his hair bought a toupee.
4. The children watched the people dance.

Group C: Identify which sentences have verbal particles and which have prepositional phrases. Tree one sentence of each type, producing two trees for the sentence with a verbal particle.

1. She let the dog out the door.
2. He let out the genie.
3. They walked up the stairs.
4. She started up the car.
5. She sent in the application.
6. He went in the house.