THE FORCES OF LIGHT

DR. FRITZ, OR:

A light came on Don's, drying himself with a towel.

This play was written for the incomparable Nancy Oped.

Tom: No, I don't believe in God.

Maria: I say, Good; you believe in God.

Tom: Well.

Maria: Good; you believe in God.

...,

Maria: With a murmur.

Tom: And the assistant of Dr. Fitz (laughs maddly); then came Maria: A minute. You're not Dr. Fitz...?

Tom: This is Dr. Fitz's chair.

Maria: Can I sit on it?

Only the chairs I am sitting on.

Tom: Do you have a chair?

Maria: Oh, Dr. Fitz.

Tom: Dr. Fitz.

Maria: Jesus are everywhere.

Tom: Is he here?

Maria: (jumping to look) Where?

Tom: (palm) Jesus Christ...!

Dr. Fitz.

Maria: Now this is the souvenir shop of Maria, and the offices of Tom: English.

Maria: You speak the language so good.

Tom: But—does the sign say "Butcher"?

Maria: Ah, but are they expensive? A case for Dr. Fitz.

Tom: But—
Do you love me?
You what?
I love you, Tom.

No. I just want to die.

No, I don't want it. Please anymore.

Yes.

Will许e. You know I think this every day, but here I am. God.

Middle of the night I thought I was going to die.

I am told it is good.

Tough. The good was good?

Last night I ate supper at the lodge.

We all will die, shishops—God will fine.

Here. Look here. I do, tell them this.

Where.

Tom, Maria, maybe?

This could be the feathers.

I am shivering.

Are you shivering?

I must have fever.

There is always more near than near, the eyes near, not.
I can't feel it. You people. Too many Coca-Cokes in this.

LOST TOSI! (Get up, you lazy fat! Move now! Move now!)

What's going on here...

No. This is the monumental love. No.

MAN/N/DR. FITZ

I need a doctor.

MAN/N/DR. FITZ

God love you too.

TOM

This is the monumental love. No.
Tom: No!PRITZ

Warria/Dr. PRITZ: This is not fever. This is shaking. Do you feel well?

Tom: But I'm shaking!

Warria/Dr. PRITZ: You feel no fever. Nothing there. Nothing is going in your temperature. A good sign (takes one on auscultation.)

Tom: Yes, I'm hot.

Warria/Dr. PRITZ: This is panic!

Tom: Oh!

Warria/Dr. PRITZ: Good (shakes on the tip of the head).

Tom: Where?

Warria/Dr. PRITZ: Another reflex? Tom does too.

Tom: No, like this. He makes a raspbery. Tom does too.

Warria/Dr. PRITZ: Your eyesight is excellent. Open your mouth.

Tom: You're not wearing a watch.

Warria/Dr. PRITZ: (Closes your hand) Still well, Tom's hand.

Tom: Where?

Warria/Dr. PRITZ: Good bloody finger. That's the fine. You must use this nice a day and make Ze.

Tom: Once. PRITZ

Warria/Dr. PRITZ: Once a day, or twice a day?

Tom: I do use Head and Shoulders.

Warria/Dr. PRITZ: ZO I see, you must use Head and Shoulders.

Tom: I do have dandruff.

Warria/Dr. PRITZ: And you have very ugly dandruff.

Tom: I do eat a little pickly pain right there.

Warria/Dr. PRITZ: (Taking a good look of Tom's eyes quickly). You have zell.

Tom: Sometimes I take a little pickly pain right there.

Warria/Dr. PRITZ: Why you are so important, you mindless.

Tom: That's Pabla, in Tom.

Warria/Dr. PRITZ: And? I hear there was a man in Ze touchache.

Tom: No.

Warria/Dr. PRITZ: You pay in Ze touchache?

Tom: Open wide.

Warria/Dr. PRITZ: There's no bite.

Tom: Can I sit in the chair?

TOM

I'm German. Nothing is funny. Ha, ha.

LYNDA/FRITZ

I am. I'm getting a roothache.

TOM

You know what's funny?

LYNDA/FRITZ

I'm a highly qualified surgeon.

TOM

How do you know all these things about me?

LYNDA/FRITZ

I hate no idea. Lie down. (Doc. Fries Says, Tom)
